

Making Academic Language Visible

Article # 20

1 Identify the Academic Language

Select the concept, command terms, or academic language intended for learning.

2 Draw a Diagram

Think of how to transform the concept or verb into images. Select only the most essential elements to integrate into the diagram.

3 Guided Practice

Show ELs the diagram. Ask them to copy it into their notebooks.

Then, walk students through using the diagram.

